A comic panel depicting a scene in a long, brightly lit hallway. On the left, a young woman with long, dark brown hair and bangs is shown in profile, looking towards the right. She has a slight smile and is wearing a black top with white polka dots. A speech bubble above her contains the word "BEN". On the right, a young man with short, brown hair is leaning against a dark wooden frame, possibly a doorway or a large picture. He is looking back over his shoulder at the woman. He is wearing a grey V-neck t-shirt with the words "100% HUGO" printed on it. A speech bubble above him contains the text "HEY..". The hallway in the background features a series of doors and framed pictures on the walls, with recessed ceiling lights creating a perspective effect.
